November 30. (Stated Meeting.)

JAMES APJOHN, M. D., Vice-President, in the Chair.

Mons. Arago, of Paris, was unanimously elected an Honorary Member of the Academy.

Certain Returns ordered by the Council, on the 1st July, to be furnished to the Academy, were laid upon the table, viz.:

1. A List of all Papers or Essays read before the Academy, in the departments of Belles Lettres and Antiquities, which were referred to Council for publication, from the 17th March, 1828, to 17th March, 1844, containing the dates of such reading, the names of the authors, whether ordered by the Council for publication, and, if published in the Transactions, with the dates of the Council's order for publication.*
2. A statement of all payments made by the Academy for wood-cuts and engravings for Proceedings and Transactions, from 1816 to 1845, inclusive.
3. A statement of all payments made by the Academy for letter-press printing, from 1816 to 1845, inclusive.
4. Extract from Minutes of Council, June 29th, 1840, containing Mr. Petrie's contract to supply the Academy with 450 copies of his Essay on the Round Towers, at thirty shillings per copy.
5. A statement of premiums, in money and medals, given by the Academy from 15th March, 1828, to June 24th, 1844.
6. A statement of the available assets and liabilities of the Academy.

* With the view of making this Return as full as possible, it also included the Papers on Science which were read, and it was continued to 24th June, 1844, when the session ended.
